

Program Completion Plan for BA-Quantitative in Economics

August 2008

Student _____

University of Minnesota ID _____

Date: _____

| Prerequisites  | Credits | Term/Semester |
|---|----------------|----------------------|
| Econ 1101 or equivalent   | 4              |                      |
| Econ 1102 or equivalent   | 4              |                      |
| Math 1271   | 4              |                      |
| Minimum grade of C- is required in each course                       |                |                      |
| Major Requirements   |                |                      |
| Econ 3101-3102(prerequisites for almost all upper-division courses)     | 8              |                      |
| Four upper-division economics courses(no non-major courses)             | 12             |                      |
| One of the upper level courses must be Writing Intensive             |                |                      |
| Econ 3951 - Senior Project  | 2              |                      |
| Econ 4211 - Principles of Econometrics                                      | 4              |                      |
| Math 2243 - Linear Algebra & Differential Equations - prerequisite for 4211 | 4              |                      |
| Stat 3021-3022 - Introduction to Statistical Analysis, Data Analysis        | 8              |                      |
|   |                |                      |
| Minimum grade of C- required in each course                          |                |                      |

Economics: Undergraduate Adviser
Economics: Director of Graduate Studies

Madhu Bhat (econugra@econ.umn.edu)
Simran Sahi (ssahi@econ.umn.edu)

This is not an official University of Minnesota document. Please refer to your APAS Report or CLA Academic Adviser for details regarding your degree progress.

Honors students to additionally write an acceptable Honors Thesis (Econ 4993) - Please contact the Honors Advisor, Professor Kim Sau Chung at sau@umn.edu..